FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

TUREDAY, March 19-6 P. M. The stock market has been, on the whole, firm to-day, although it was temporarily dopressed shortly after showed the strength of its undertone as well as indicated the speculative activity which is rapidly becoming energi. The prevailing opinion is that the improve-ment which has just commenced will make steady pro-press throughout the coming spring and summer, and and it is reasonable to another previous to the present one will be succeeded by a corresponding reaction. Money continues in abundant supply to the Stock Exchange at six and seven per cent, according to the character of the collaterals and the standing of to the character of the collaterals and the standing of the borrowers. There is a fair business doing in the discount line, and the best grade of commercial paper passes at the legal rate of interest, with exceptional transactions at a difference of a half per cent above and below it. A few timid persons are looking as wise as owis as to the effect of the national banks making up their quarterly returns on the 1st of April; but no appre-

A St. Louis journal of the 18th inst. remarked of the Hissouri State Credit bill that the act which has passed sislature to provide for the payment of interest on the state debt, and which awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law, will, to a great extent, relieve apprehensions in regard to the financial credit of Mis-souri. The act appropriates $4,000,000 of the amount sury, a tax of $136,000 on the railroads, and the proceeds of a four mill tax, estimated at $1,400,000, for this commendable purpose, and to form a sinking fund.
